Action #1

Visit the Library of Congress Website and learn about the history of LGBTQ pride month. There, you can learn about the Stonewall Riots and view a documentary about the Gay Pride demonstration marches in 1970.

Action #2

Take a trip and visit a LGBTQ memorial.

These memorials remind us of the struggle that the LGBTQ community has faced and of the continuing work that must be done to foster an inclusive environment which provides dignity and respect for all people.

Action #3

Discover the proper use of personal pronouns:
<https://www.mypronouns.org/>

Using someone's correct personal pronouns is a way to respect them and create an inclusive environment.

Action #4

Tune into "Freddie Mercury- The Final Act" which reviews the final chapter of Freddie Mercury's life and how Queen staged one of the biggest concerts in history to challenge the prejudices around HIV/AIDS.

Action #5

View this documentary: "13th" on Netflix.

This documentary explores the criminalization of African-Americans and the U.S. prison boom.
