Action #1

Celebrate National Women's History Month in style and attend a luncheon or another event near you. If you are planning to be in the Bloomington area on March 23, you can register for this year's luncheon which has the theme "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories".

Action #2

Cozy up with a great movie! Hidden Figures is an amazing true story about three women who were mathematical masterminds and were instrumental in the 1962 space launch which marked the first time American astronauts orbited the earth.

Action #3

For many people, despite religion or ethnicity, St. Patrick's Day has become an annual tradition. If you think that meal options are limited to corned beef and cabbage, consider exploring some other recipes from Ireland. If you need to work off some of that meal, here is a quick tutorial for some Irish dance steps.

Action #4

Take a trip to Highland, IN on March 19 and celebrate World Down Syndrome Day by participating in a car parade! Prizes will be given for dancing, crazy socks, and car decorations! Find out more here!
